

Resources Now Available Online!

Project AWARE Ohio resources are now available online! Check out <http://resources.oberlinkconsulting.com/> to access our E-news, information briefs, and compendia at the click of your mouse. Our information is more readily available than ever before so that you can easily access and share it with others to help promote positive mental health development among all students.

Information Brief: Bullying of LGBT Students

In addition to exploring our resources that are now available online, please read the attached information brief about lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender (LGBT) students and the bullying they frequently experience in schools. You will first learn about what LGBT bullying is and the specific ways it can affect students. Then you can read about all of the ways you can make a difference and positively impact students' experiences in schools!

Ohio PBIS Showcase Award Winners

The 2015 Ohio Positive Behavioral Interventions and Supports (PBIS) Showcase was held on December 1, 2015. At the day-long event, 22 schools were recognized for their successful implementation of PBIS. For a list of the award winners, see <http://content.govdelivery.com/accounts/OHED/bulletins/129b896> Congratulations to all of these schools for their great work!
